Board of Stewards Pass Resolutions Condemning Resolutions in Conference as to Transfers.

HELP JAMESTOWN

Ladies of Norfolk Will Boycott Merchants Who do Not Subscribe to Big Exposition.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) KORFOLK, VA., November 17.—A great sensation in Virginia Methodist circles resulted from the action of the Virginia Conference, which includes the Eastern Shore of Maryland, in condemning the calling of selected ministers from other conferences to special charges here. Epworth Church, of this city, which recently called Rev. Dr. Smart from Missouri to succeed Bishop Smith, the wealthlest charge in the conference, has, through its Board of Stewards, by formal resolution, declared war on the sentiment expressed in the action of the conference, declaring that the idea is un-Christian, and that the ministers have formed a close corporation to keep out ministers from foreign fields.

THE RESOLUTIONS.

THE RESOLUTIONS.

The resolutions are as follows:
Whereas, at a session of the Virginia Conference, now being held in Charlottes-ville, Va., a resolution was offered, signed by a number of the ministers, declaring that Virginia ministers could not extend a hearty welcome to any man who comes from the outside to a picked church, and whereas the said resolution was adopted, to the discredit of those voting for it, thus publishing to the Methodists of this State and conference that the resident ministers have constituted themselves a close corporation, with a view to discouraging churches under the jurisdiction of this conference in exercising the right of expressing a preference for any other minister than one of their own number; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we condemn in most unqualified terms the resolution, as well as the spirit manifested by its adoption, as being un-Christian and un-Methodistic.

Resolved, second, That we deplore the fact that a body of men and ministers should so far forget themselves as gratuitously to wound (if not offend) the feelings of those who have been called to preach the gospel, and who, through no connivance or efforts of their own, have been assigned to our churches.

Resolved, third, That we believe in the litherance in its broadest sense, and in not confining it to a State conference.

Resolved, fourth, That a copy of these preamble and resolutions be forwarded to the secretary of the conference, with the request that it be read before the conference.

field of seventeen mounts, all eager for their weekly Saurday gallop across country after their speedy Virginia bred hounds.

The course of five miles, from Keswick down to Campbell's Station, thence back to The Oaks, lay over some fifteen stiff timber jumps, and ditches galore.

At the second jump Mrs. Allen Potts' good old hunter, "Bachelor," landed on a huge oak stump, from which both horse and rider rolled heavily to the fround. The plucky rider was quickly in her saddle again and in at the finish. Mr. Middleton, of Kentucky, also had a bead-on tumble into a ditch, from which he emerged unhurt, but very much

This will be the beginning of the diversion plan of the river that has been sought so long by the people of this city.

Captain Winslow and Engineer Hennly, of the Atlantic Coast Line, after inspecting the embankment which will have to be removed, decided what work would have to be done by the railroad company and the United States government. Work will begin at the lower end of the channel, and when the force reaches the city with the work, the embankment of the Atlantic Coast Line will have been removed by the company and the government. All that remains to be done before bids can be advertised for is approval by the company of the recommendations of their engineer. There are three firms, al-ready, that desire to bid on the work.
